

The Professor's Report Card for Jamaican Government Ministers for 2010

	GRADE
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Prime Minister Hon. Bruce Golding Failed to provide ethical, national or political leadership. Lied to the populace Misrepresented to Parliament	F
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of Finance & The Public Service Hon. Audley Shaw Seemed to get better as the year moved on. Seems to thrive under difficult circumstances. Did a good job on obtaining Jamaica's IMF best approval A future PM?	B
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of Agriculture & Fisheries Hon. Dr. Christopher Tufton Combined energy with dynamic support for the Farmers	B
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of Energy & Mining Hon. James Robertson Rather horrendous management style. Under investigation	F
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of Labour & Social Security Hon. Parnel Charles Did his best to get Jamaicans to work both in Jamaica and overseas	B
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of State for Local Government Hon. Robert Montague Good, strong Minister with excellent communication skills	B+
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of National Security Senator the Hon. Dwight Nelson Job way above his talent, training or expertise	F
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of Education, Leader of the House & Minister with responsibility for Election Matters Hon. Andrew Holness Moving in the right direction	B+
<ul style="list-style-type: none">▪ Minister of Health Hon. Rudyard Spencer Did his best in difficult circumstances	B

- Minister of Industry, Investment & Commerce C
Hon. Karl Samuda
 Little or no foreign investment generated

- Minister Without Portfolio in the Office of the Prime Minister B
Hon. Daryl Vaz
 Would be better if he respected the independence of the Press

- Minister of Tourism B+
Hon. Edmund Bartlett
 Has worked hard to generate arrivals

- Ministry of Transport & Works C+
Hon. Michael Henry
 Very little public work done in PNP areas

- Minister of Justice & Attorney General F
Hon. Dorothy Lightbourne, QC
 Should have resigned over Christopher ‘Dudus’ Coke’s
 Extradition crisis

David Rowe is a Professor of Law at the University of Miami School of Law